This year the English Schools' AA is proud to celebrate its centenary and a key part of the celebrations will be a Parade of Champions during the ESAA Track and Field Championships at the Alexander Stadium, Birmingham, on Saturday 12 July.

The message from ESAA is as follows:-

You may be aware the association is celebrating its centenary year, and we were awarded a World Heritage plaque on the 16th of May 2025 on the date that ESAA was founded in 1925. On this day we became the third youth-based organisation in the world to be awarded the plaque. The plaque will be presented by Jon Ridgeon, World Athletics CEO, at our Centenary Track and Field Championships, during the parade on the Saturday. please find the link to the press release,

As part of our centenary celebrations, we are inviting all ESAA individual gold medallists from previous Championships (Track & Field, Cross-Country, Combined Events and Race Walking) to join the 'Parade of Champions' at this year's Track and Field Championships on Saturday 12th July. Please find attached a 'flyer' that you are welcome to share across your association including your social media platforms informing our past champions. They need to make contact by 20th June 2025 using the link englishschoolsinfo@gmail.com.
